FOIRTH CELEBRATION GALA AFFAIR!

SPORTS, DLNGING, FIREFORKS GIVE COLOR TO ARUBE'S SECOND CELEBRATION OF INDIEPENGFNGE DL.Y. WELRY MUSCLES TELL STORY OF INIENSE LCMIVITY.

Inaugurated by the big dance July 3 , the Camp was ever on the move until the last Roman candle had flickered its firey salute late July 4th. The gamut of evonts run off with clock-like precision, attracted and sustained tho intorest of all fram begiming to end.

Tho Stomp was attondod by tho largost crowd presont at rocent dances. Hasic punctuated by fire-crackors, swirling pertnors, firo scaro and much thoopee envers the story of tho inaugural. Much interest was manifested in the display of cups, medals and trophies - tho prizos for the sport events.

By one o'clock on the "diny of days" 2 crowd of sovoral hundred had githwrod at Lone Palm Stadium - cuito i: comperison to the smoll numbor ussumbiod on tho tank from last yoar to seo the Indion Mar Dance and the Pon Am-Chi Bridge Bell rime.

Schulonburg of $h 1$ ton, Ill. ran nice reces to win both the 100 and 220 yard d:shos. His time of 11 seconds in the 100 Tis slower by throo-fifths of e socond cirn his time in tho first hoat. His thino of 27 in the 220 was sloy, but he ror ocasily, saving himself for tho final of the century.

Finley of Kollogg and Peebles, Pan ing, ran second and third respectivoly in tho hundrod. Finl oy also copped off second honors in the longor dash. Steor of Pnn im finished third in the 220, but judges disqualified him giving third to A.shyorth of Kollogg.

The milo relay, which in reality was a three-quartor milo distanco, each men running a four-forty, was won handily by Millor, Moy end Peoblos of Pan Am. Time for this ovont was 2:44.

(Editor's Note: This is week Jim Gives us
$\therefore \quad 0$ description of nature's paradise-the Cothadral of his race.)

Seated upon a huge granito boulder, we hod stopped to anele in on s of the deep blue pools that effervesces below the falls. Tho light of a new day was bursting its splendor over this mountain world.

Every where about us lifo was renesinc with restored vigor, that over and unfinis shed quest for food. The der, fresh end undisturbed, clung to every leaf and vine, the thin crescent of a waning moon tromped the bristling pines of the highest ridge, which the age-old vice of the turbulent stream ascended to the distent crags.

Directly across the pool upon the pouting lip of the smooth granite mall. a veter thrush hod built a very elaborate home. Ie were concluded thant the nest rested on empty and abandoned monument to the memory of 0 done.rtod broca. wien from out of the under brush some a mother bird, alighting upon tho comfortable stone veranda, inch of Er: which extended out to the fry o: tails regnisjicont home. Te were osicicalliv sui:veyed by tiny black body sos, thrift snapped indignant sunrise at our encrouchment. The restless and foaming current of the stream soon restored a fooling of security, and after several enenpy little nods all reticence was discarded.

The green insect held in her little weak moved along thin legs in feeble protess $a=$ being sacrificed upon this stony altar of maternal worship; a chorus of baby cheeps, solicitous in tone, came Exon within, while mother's til tilted skyward as she passed the juicy morsel of food to a gaping hungry mouth. She was diligent in hor application, end soon all wen peace and quietude; mo thar's approach stimulated no farther interest. The radiance of the ascending sun was rapidly pressing the coll shadows deeper into the canyon, and as the dazzling light slid down the cliff to glorify this snug abode, the li广tlo mothorniker hoar ..in bursting with love, sat upon the veranda and in her happiness poured. forth a sweet and melodious warble, mingling, as it wore, faith that age-old song of the turbulent streain.

"Do wider Ruer-Let Her Buck".

The crowd is yelling and chenring, The cameramen lined in a row. For the Cactus Derby: is. serving ind the steeds (?) are rearing to ${ }^{\text {go. }}$

There is Mills from Old Wyoming, bestride a noble steed. send coaxing his mount to the post With a cabbage tied on a reed.

Finer's Treagle wi th colors flying, His mount is a speedy gray.
Hest Wash McDonald's jestiul boasts;
"Int them cane on whom."
Dobbins on his stead from France; And Hurley last, whose mount they scoff.
ikey're reedy on the starting line!
The gun report. "They 're of ${ }^{4} 4$
They 're off try ${ }^{\prime}$ :
$\triangle$ case of whiskey as the prize, And "Wash" has modals as hest I hoer ammo moaning at tho bar, FOr "Trash ${ }^{2}$ s" mount never left the Post.

A bunch comes running on the track: To help the steeds clog.
A protset from the crowd is hera, "Such handier is deg -gone mig g."

The Judges great the claim of foul, In fairness to the Jocks.
Bar pushing of the stood along, Or hitting them with rocks.

Again they'ro off, and in the lead, Is Dobbins on old France.
Once mora is Fish left at the Post, He hesn't got a chance.

The race is won by Dobbins, Trecele second by a nose. Mills has lost his donkey, And - the Derby's at a close.

Though we bet on Wash McDonald, Were not in such a fix, For Dobbins always ports his case In the Kitchen of Forty Six.
